

TOP 10 SUNDAY LUNCH SPOTS IN & AROUND WORCESTER

Fowlers Grill offers a huge variety of dishes. Their lovely outside area is right on historic Church Street, perfect if you love, watching passersby come and go; or try their cozy seating indoors if you prefer more privacy.

The Hussar Grill is centrally located and looks out over Church Square and the beautiful "Moederkerk". This option will be perfect if you prefer a more fine dining experience.

BOSJES offers the most beautiful setting and two options to dine. For a more relaxing or informal experience, try Die Spens or if you prefer a more formal setting, opt for Die Kombuis. Both located on the beautiful farm, surrounded with exquisite gardens and creatively designed play areas for kids.

Nuy on the hill at Nuy Winery offers a great variety of dishes on their menu. They have a dreamy view over the Nuy Valley. It is also great for kids and of course, the perfect spot to try out some of our valleys award winning wines. You can also purchase wines for off consumption here.

Saggy Stone is nestled between mountains and orchards, just off the Nuy Road. For the most relaxing atmosphere, great food, amazing craft beer, live music and a fantastic kid's play area take a trip out to these guys.

Penhill Farm a historical farmstead, renovated and decorated to perfection, now offers amazing Sunday lunches. They are located in a beautiful setting just off the main Nuy Road. Be sure to book in advance.

Protea Hotel by Marriott Worcester Cumberland in Worcester's CBD offers the biggest Sunday lunch Buffet in town, be sure to book in advance.

De kuipers Restaurant at Golden Valley Casino, just off the N1, is a great option if you are game for a little entertainment afterwards.

Kokerboom Restaurant and Cocktail Bar in the Karoo Desert National Botanical Garden is the perfect option if you have lots of time and perhaps taking the kids along. Their relaxed atmosphere, huge lawn and beautiful gardens will make for a very relaxing Sunday.

Want to have lunch on your way back to Cape Town after a lovely weekend in the countryside? Why not try the offering at Goudini Resort & Spa maybe you can take a quick dip in one of the natural hot spring pools afterwards.... Or opt for The Bistro at Dwarsberg Trout Hideaway if you want to breath in that last bit of fresh mountain air before heading home.

